

WHAT is NCCL?

An organization tailored to the needs of catechetical leaders like YOU. There are 2000+ members of NCCL who serve in parishes, dioceses and in the publication field.

WHAT can NCCL do for ME and MY ministry?

It can provide you with:

- An opportunity to network with those in ministry, regionally and across the country not just in your own diocese
- information on new trends and materials in Catechetical Leader magazine
- a weekly on-line newsletter
- resources for catechists at all age levels
- an annual national conference to refresh, renew and reinvigorate your ministry
- advocacy for catechetical ministry with the USCCB
- discounts on annual conference fee and products
- a website that contains current information, resources and job postings

WHO are members?

Bishops, Pastors, Diocesan and Parish Directors of Religious Education, Academics and Publishers.

NCCL is the ONLY independent national organization dedicated exclusively to the Catholic Church's catechetical mission in the United States!

Join TODAY!

HOW can I find out MORE about NCCL?

Go to our website www.nccl.org

HOW do I become a MEMBER?

Go to our website www.nccl.org where you can download a membership form or join online.

WHAT do MEMBERS say about NCCL?

"NCCL helps to keep me feeling connected to the ministry taking place all over the country."

"As a member of NCCL I am kept informed of the latest research and ideas in catechesis, network with others in my field, and have access to resources."

"NCCL helps me develop professionally. I also value the connectedness to other ministers as we strive to teach as Jesus taught."